

Broadcast ownership should not be dominated by large Companies such as Clear Channel. Station and newspaper ownership should favor local ownership so the voice of the local people can be heard - not the misleading voice of hundreds of stations owned by one big company.

Sincerely, John Kasak